Living at home?

Need help to be more independent when looking after yourself?

If you are under 65 years of age with disability you may be eligible to access our Home and Community Care Program for Young People (HACC).

AccessHC offers a range of allied health and community HACC services including:

- community programs
- health and wellness program
- podiatry, dietetics, physiotherapy, occupational therapy and speech therapy services.

HACC services are available either free of charge or with a small co-contribution for eligible participants.
