

Fee Schedule 2026

Access Health and Community (AccessHC) provides a range of health and community services. These services are available through a number of subsidised or non-subsidised means.

- Subsidised: For eligible persons service cost is partially paid for through government funding. Clients may pay a contribution towards the cost of service through a gap fee
- Consumer directed: Services are fully funded by the government through a person's National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) or Support at Home.
- Bulk-billed/No out of pocket fees: Urgent Care Clinics (UCC) Only- Services are fully subsidised under Medicare. Clients accessing UCC services without Medicare will also not incur any out-of-pocket costs.
- Self-funded: Service cost are fully paid for by the client from their own funds.

Key Principals

The Client Fee Schedule is developed according to the following principles:

- Fair
- Simple
- Consistent
- Sustainable
- Competitive

Client Contribution

Where referenced in the Fee Schedule, client contribution refers to the out of pocket expense that a person is required to pay out of their own funds for subsidised services. This is applicable for services subsidised through

- Community Health Program
- Home and Community Care for Younger Persons (HACC-PYP)
- Commonwealth Home Support Program (CHSP)
- Medicare
- Public Dental

Fee Exemption Eligibility

Persons who are not required to pay a contribution for a service if they are:

- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander
- Experiencing or at risk of family violence
- Experiencing or at risk of homelessness
- Refugee and Asylum Seekers
- Children in out-of-home care and/or known to child protection or the Orange Door
- Do not have Medicare and are accessing Urgent Care Clinic (UCC) services

Where a person does not meet the fee exemption eligibility and is unwilling or unable to pay, a Fee Waiver must be approved in line with AccessHC policy and procedures. Please discuss Fee waivers with your care provider or program manager.

Medicare Bulk-billing

- Medicare bulk-billing is not available for Allied Health, Mental Health services (excluding headspace), and Child and Family services
- In the Medical Practice, bulk billing is available for all standard consultations at Richmond and Hawthorn. For the Women's Health GP service at Doncaster, bulk billing is available for people who meet the Fee Exemption Criteria (above) or who have an eligible concession card (below)
- Urgent Care Clinic (UCC) services are fully subsidised under Medicare

Income Assessment and Ranges

Where a client is accessing a service subsidised through the Community Health Program or HACC-PYP, the level of contribution required will be determined by their income. In these cases, the following income ranges will be used.

	Low	Medium		High
Individual	< $39,089	> $39,089	< $86,208	> $86,208
Couple	< $59,802	> $59,802	< $115,245	> $115,245
Family (1 Child)	< $66,009	> $66,009	< $118,546	> $118,546
	(plus $6,206 per additional child)

Income ranges have been set by the Department of Health and are aligned with Centrelink Income Test.

Eligible Concession Card

Where referenced in the Fee Schedule, an Eligible Concession Card only refers to:

- Commonwealth Health Care Card
- Commonwealth Low Income Health Care Card
- Pensioner Concession Card

The pensioner concession card includes Aged Pension and Disability Support Pension. For more information on eligible cards please visit Services Australia links associated to the cards above.

Non-Eligible concession cards include any concession cards issued by the Victorian Government, Veterans Affairs, the Commonwealth Seniors Health Card or other Commonwealth concession cards.
